The first part of the paper is devoted to a description of the general character of the country, and to a notice of the principal towns and cities. The second part contains a description of the principal rivers and lakes, and of the principal mountains and hills. The third part contains a description of the principal minerals and metals, and of the principal manufactures. The fourth part contains a description of the principal plants and animals, and of the principal customs and manners of the people. The fifth part contains a description of the principal laws and constitution of the country. The sixth part contains a description of the principal history and events of the country. The seventh part contains a description of the principal geography and topography of the country.

The paper is written in a cursive hand, and is somewhat faded and stained. The text is arranged in several columns, and is written in a clear and legible hand. The paper is of a light color, and is somewhat aged. The stamp is a circular purple ink mark, and is located in the center of the page.

Handwritten text at the top of the page, including a signature and possibly a date.

Second section of handwritten text, appearing to be a list or a series of notes.

Third section of handwritten text, continuing the notes or list from the previous section.
