

Dear Sir

Allow me to add my hearty wishes for every happiness to you and your dear Bride
in the new life you
are about to enter,
May you ever be a prop and comfort to each other! for as our poet Dr. Cotton in

"The Fireside" says—

"That marriage rightly understood"
"Gives to the tender and the good A paradise below;"

May this be your lot!
And may your stay
in my native land
be one of agreeable & interesting impressions!
May you also find
the far famed cold—=ness of English somewhat

thawed by the rays
of the genial sun in June

With my best regards to your young Bride Believe me

Yours very truly

Frances Appell
mei Bond.

May 19th / 60

Wieden 489

Wien.

Gassen Da Lohessen

o r o