

Most honor'd Sir

Since i have not found Belisarius in the french tongue; i would beg the favour of you, my dear friend, if i dare call you so; to lent it me for some days, you may be sure i will give it you back with many thanks: excuse my freedom i took in troubling you: i am your most obedient servant

Joseph Dorizio.

Most honest
I have not found
I would say the friend if I had
for some days
if you had freedom I took in looking your
I hope
