Dear Mama. I had you already written, but I have so much to do, that I have hardly time to write. Wednesday went Papa away and ^{Friday} day came beside Henry at me. He will drive perhaps with me, if when I drive to Spitz. I'll probably come Sunday, the twenty sixth. How are you and Lola? Does Elbire still fear herself? Last time I was with Henry and Clotilde in the table of songs of the "Schubertbund", where we very amused us ^{and}. Have you already seen the comet? It is very hot every day. Believe me to be yours

Fredy.
