

4. 10. 72

Dearest!

I must send you
a good night & still today, because —
I don't know!

Stormy cold weather
like in the country,
I am preparing for
sea; Bad news: Jabelcraft —

our lodging arranged mented to do so!
never mind! We shall give lessons
in the art of living.

I am anxious how
you came home?
with the fragile
carriage, or vehicle
for filles de l'air?
Send me word, pray

I had indifferent
company, was
reading, slumbering,
smoking and did not
alas! converse any more with my fair neighbour. It was too cold for looking out the window.

Went to Schaepler
milk, than home

and now you has come in all spirit's -
for the weather too!
Matherwoman was here
and there is silence.
I long for your news
and hope too meet
you Saturday next on the Station with sunshine and funning
I embrace thee
tenderly
I greet M. Nor-r and wife.
