Dearest! a presentiment tore me away from your paradise: a quantity of business required my presence, but I hope to see you very soon - suddenly! Now I must tell you only in a very bad english a very good: God bless you! I long to know how you and Adeline "plethora" = Vollkühnig, wallstellig. Let us try to become so. Pray, do speak with the Kegelbahn hostess and inspect her kitchen, she is known as a good cook, perhaps she may exert her art for you and emancipate us from the Curhaus-Expedition. All right at home. Elischer is here sick in the hotel since a fortnight! Fredy will kiss your hands and so do I gratefully
