N^o. 3 Newhous 19, S. 76 My dearest Mela!
Finally I got even now your kind letter, which made me the greatest joy, I read it again on the phlangtung.
I am very obliged to you for having me engaged to this excursion, every day I find it more charming and the possessors of the castle more agreeable and preventing, Notwithstanding I long to embrace you both and it may be that it will arrive already Monday at 2 afternoon, but it is too hot for awaiting me, besides it is uncertain.
Tomorrow is A. name day, great banquet and on Monday excursion with a large company, I like better to repose and to see you earlier, although I must stop at Cilli. Tombs writing is an eminent proof of intellect and common sense.
Every thing is so perfect and agreeable, that I would stay with you long time here. Yesterday evening I was at the road in the ball-hall. - very splendid, but I endured it only half an hour Farewell greet you all. I great affi and embrace you both tenderly Louis
