Dearest You have my card of yesterday and I hope to receive thine today. We had a delicious bath in the cold rivulet and a splendid dinner, after that a wholesome visita with coffee and later a walk in the mountains. The aunt is indisposed and so. the same, but Lauri is in high spirits and constantly with me, freely with the two girls of Mithra. The supper was copious likewise, we are 12 persons at table, where Mr. Schmoke, the director of the tobacco factories in Vienna amuses the company with his humorous tricks. I have the mind, to depart Monday next in the morning, arrival at I evening at Mr. Wörth. The matter begins to arrange and I long very much to be at home with you. I saw only a few ladies on the bath place, they looked not at all sick and this evening they will dance and so I find the world is everywhere the same and I embrace you both heartily Fredy likewise
