Dartas Foglar

I regret infinitely, that you have so many affairs. Friday next, I will remain at home, hoping, that not again unforeseen impediments, will disturb our musical pleasure - but, perhaps, you are not obliged to be absent from Dinner - you write only, "it may be" - I will in every case remain at home, also on Tuesday evening.

It is very friendly, that you give me again so many thanks for the Coats and the portrait, but, you may believe sir, that I was also very pleased with your not less eminent portrait.

My mother joins in best regards to you.

Good bye sir, take care of your eyes! — —

Melanie

Friday evening.
