

My dear Sir.

I beg leave to submit it to You whether the request of the Student, whose Note to me, accompanies this, may be granted or not. As I believe what he alledged, to be true, I myself can have no objection to his admission among the Candidates, if You do not disapprove of it. I am

My dear Sir
With great esteem

The Riddle Don't Madam I spell
Is true to the letter it says U X L
Liberality's Daughter, I'm sure ^{the} ^{are} ~~you~~ ^{you} ^{degree}
So Politemess allied in a equal
Your Name it is Kindness, tho' Wit
And Married to
To see U X L Don't outsize me

Kind where is seen the gentle ^{smile}
The soft, kind smile of Annie
Sae free frae care sae free ^{guile} from ~~Sae sweet's~~ the smile of Annie
At whate'er
Aye, at her Pillow while she sleeps
To ^{see} ^{sure} the smile of Annie
Her Guardian Angel Vigil keeps
And smiles like lovely Annie
For you're kindness ^{yourself} herself and you're
Married to Wit
