The image shows the front cover of an antique book. The cover is made of a light brown, textured material, possibly leather or cloth, and is intricately decorated with blind-tooled patterns. The design features a central rectangular area with a decorative border. Inside this border, there are four large, stylized floral motifs arranged in a cross pattern, each with a central flower and radiating leaves. The background of the cover is filled with a complex, repeating geometric and floral pattern. The text "PAUL POLLAK" and "WIEN" is printed in the center of the cover.
