Wien, 22. 6. 1866

My dear friend!

I have received your letter - and I am in my own power to be obliging.

I have well thought - I have the idea of the book, but I have not yet found the time to do it. I will try to do it as soon as possible.

I have not yet had the chance to
write you and I am sorry for it.
I will try to do it as soon as possible.
I have not yet had the chance to
write you and I am sorry for it.
I will try to do it as soon as possible.

Yours truly
F. W. M. M. M.
