

My dear Mrs. Tolson!

For my last year's annual report
 I have written of "Liberation in the American South" for which I hope you will find time to read, and perhaps to write, as of my personal life.
 The year is not over, but I shall, I think,
 have done.

I am, of course, with deep sympathy and interest, following the progress of the struggle.

With respect,
 your brother

Tracy

Wash., D.C. Sept. 22.

I. J. Wilson, page 4.

