

50. Lower Mount Street
Dublin
August 4th 1887.

My dearest Augusta
my last engagements
and am now in lodgings here, at the above address.
Have you taken
your vacation yet

and where did you spend it. Did you hear any news of our own
dear Goss since I wish she were living in she could could not in a corner as we could both see her sometimes

them. I feel very very lonely here all alone so I hope dearest Augusta that you will write
me a long letter in a few days to cheer me
up. Have you sent your photograph

Taken since,
 Accept now
 my Love, and also a Kiss, and Believe me ever

Your faithful friend

Lophy

Dearest Auguste
 mine ever Thine
Love
