

M. N. 237.148

Je vous demande bien des excuses mon cher Monsieur Ballouhey de répondre si tard à la lettre dans laquelle vous m'adressez vos vœux à l'occasion de la nouvelle année et pour lesquels je ne vous en suis pas moins reconnaissante. — Je serois auj. bien contente si votre santé vous permet de faire un voyage en Italie et de venir à Parme où vous seriez sûr d'être le bien venu dans sa maison, et je fais bien des vœux pour qu'elle ne vous cause plus autant d'incommodité que par le passé. — Ma santé est auj. très bonne et je compte me rendre bientôt à la campagne, et partir dans une couple de mois à Vicence — Je vous prie de croire à tous les sentiments d'estime et de considération avec lesquels je suis

I beg you to forgive me, my dear Mr. Ballonhey, that I am so late in answering your letter in which you sent me your best wishes for the <sup>new year</sup> season, and for which I am so grateful to you. I should also be very glad if your health allowed you, to make a trip to Italy and to see me in Parma, where you surely would be most welcome in <sup>the</sup> her house, and I shall pray for your sake that <sup>it</sup> she give you no more such trouble as <sup>it</sup> she did in the past. My health is very good too, and I hope that I shall soon be able to go to the country, and perhaps in a couple of months to Vienna. I beg you to believe in my sentiments of regard and esteem. I am

Your most affectionate

Marie Louise.

Parma, May 30th, 1827.

I am very sorry to hear that you are so late in answering my letter. I best wishes for the season, and for to you. I should like to see you you, to visit a trip to Italy and to you surely would be most welcome in port for your own sake and also as the wife in the house. My health is such that I shall soon be able to enjoy it a couple of months in Italy in my excitement of regard

Yours, Wm. L. G. 1887.
