Wenn es Ihnen vielleicht möglich, mir für meinen Essay: „Fr. N. als Dramatiker“ (in einer illustrierten, sehr prächtigen Festschrift) eine Kilte der Leider zu grüßlich danken zu übermitteln? D. O.

Dear Mr. [Name]

I have received your letter of the 10th and am glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. The weather here is very pleasant now.

I am sure you will be interested to hear that I have just received a letter from [Name] who is well and sends his regards to you. I have also received a letter from [Name] who is also well. I am sure you will be glad to hear from them. I have not much more to write at present. I am sure you will be interested to hear that I have just received a letter from [Name] who is well and sends his regards to you. I have also received a letter from [Name] who is also well. I am sure you will be glad to hear from them. I have not much more to write at present. I am sure you will be interested to hear that I have just received a letter from [Name] who is well and sends his regards to you. I have also received a letter from [Name] who is also well. I am sure you will be glad to hear from them.
