

Milan Sep 11th 1842

Dear Sir!

It is my intention to visit Vienna in a fortnight hence and as I have some heavy luggage which was necessary to forward by Postage; I have taken the liberty of directing it to you, should it arrive at Vienna earlier than myself

I beg the favour of your receiving it until my arrival. Thanking you for former kindness and trusting you will excuse the liberty I take

I beg to remain Yours Dear Sir
Most obliged. servt.

Parish Always Harp Virtute - Compt. Parish Always

W. H. D. 1852

Handwritten text in the top left corner, possibly a date or address, written in a cursive script.

A large, stylized handwritten character or mark in the upper middle section.

Vertical handwritten text in the middle left section, possibly a name or address.

Main body of vertical handwritten text in the center, consisting of several lines of cursive script.

A large, faint handwritten mark or signature on the right side of the page.

11

Handwritten flourish

Monsieur
 Monsieur August Artaner
 am Kohlmarkt
 Wien

MILAN 7
 SET.

FRANCE

Received by [unclear]
 [unclear]
 [unclear]
 [unclear]
 [unclear]
 [unclear]
 [unclear]

Supper

1843.
 Paris
 Mayland, 11. Sept.
 13 2²