Dear Mother

I received your letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news to write at present.
The weather here is very warm now.
I have been thinking of writing to you for some time but have been so busy that I could not find time. I hope to write you more often in the future.
I love you very much and hope you will write soon.

The first of the papers in this series was prepared by me in 1872 in the form of a pamphlet and was of eight pages. It was published in 1872 and is the first of a series of papers on the subject of the history of the United States.

The second of the papers in this series was prepared by me in 1873
in the form of a pamphlet and was
of eight pages. It was published in 1873 and is the second of a series of papers on the subject of the history of the United States.

The third of the papers in this series was prepared by me in 1874
in the form of a pamphlet and was
of eight pages. It was published in 1874 and is the third of a series of papers on the subject of the history of the United States.
